FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2023 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

Analysis

The bill modifies the definition of trafficking, creating new crimes and increasing the penalties for sex/human trafficking. The bill also removes the requirement of corroborating evidence in certain circumstances for these crimes. The bill also increases sex offender registration requirements for certain offenses.

These changes create new crimes and elevate the seriousness and penalties of existing crimes. Although many serious trafficking cases are prosecuted at the federal level, increased registration requirements may result in an increase in failure to register cases and more serious cases with increased penalties require additional litigation throughout all stages of the process, but particularly increase jury trials, contested sentencing hearings, and post-conviction litigation.

An additional position will enable staff to manage the increased discovery and client contact related to litigation for sex trafficking cases and the increased registration requirement. The Agency will need one additional Law Office Assistant 1 in the Anchorage office.

Add 1 Law Office Assistant 1/2 position (Anchorage Range 13 Step A)
